

I consider the Indiana Telephone Privacy a service that should be provided to those who wish to obtain that service. I don't appreciate solicitors calling my home or business requesting services I have not asked for. The Indiana Telephone Privacy has prevented those calls which I really don't want.